Senator Daphne Jordan again advocates for reopening of Triform Camphill Community and restoration of Day Habilitation Services

SENATOR DAPHNE JORDAN June 10, 2020

| ISSUE: REOPENING NEW YORK, COMMUNITY SERVICE, NEW YORK STATE

Senator Daphne Jordan recently wrote Governor Cuomo once again advocating for the re-opening of Triform Camphill Community and the restoration of Day Habilitation services and corresponding programs provided throughout the state. Senator Jordan originally wrote the Governor on May 14, 2020 requesting the re-opening of Triform Camphill Community in Columbia County, and recently renewed her advocacy for this important effort. A copy of Senator Jordan's correspondence to the Governor is attached with this posting.
