| ISSUE: ROAD SAFETY; INFRASTRUCTURE; HIGHWAY SAFETY
| COMMITTEE: LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION ON RURAL RESOURCES

Syracuse, NY - Today, Senator Rachel May (D-Onondaga, Madison, Oneida) announced more than $11 million in funding for road improvements in Central New York.

The projects are:

- $1.0 million to renew Route 233 from Route 412 to Access Road in Oneida County
- $1.5 million to renew Route 12 from the Chenango City Line to South of Hubbardsville in Madison County

- $3.9 million to renew Route 11 south of Taft Road to North of Bear Street in Onondaga County
- $1.5 million to renew Route 173 from the Syracuse City line to Limestone Creek Bridge and Clinton Street to the Madison County line in Onondaga County
- $344,000 to renew Route 298 from East Taft Road to Route 31 in Onondaga County
- $2.2 million to renew Route 38A from Route 38 in Moravia to the Onondaga County line and from the Cayuga north County line to the Cayuga east County line in Cayuga and Onondaga Counties
- $694,000 to renew Route 48 from Farrell Road to the Baldwinsville Town line in Onondaga County

These awards represent new funding provided through the PAVE NY Initiative for the renewal of State roadways impacted by extreme weather events.

This infrastructure investment will enhance the safety of the State's highways and reduce roadway roughness, making these pavements more fuel efficient. The projects announced today will begin this spring and will be completed during the winter of 2020.
