Out and About Events Around My District This Week

St. Patrick's Day Potpourri

Tomorrow, the City of Rochester will host its 34th Annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. If you are attending this year's parade, and haven't been there before, you can check out www.rochesterparade.com for all of the specifics that you need to know.

Did you know the first St. Patrick's Day Parade took place not in Ireland, but in the United States back in 1762. Irish soldiers serving in the English military marched way back then throughout New York City.

Now a little more history of St. Patrick's Day. March 17th marks the religious feast day of St. Patrick. Irish families would often attend church in the morning and celebrate in the afternoon.

And in Chicago, the Chicago River is dyed green each year! I hope to see you on Saturday at the parade!

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

This weekend, Greece Athena Middle School presents the final 3 presentations of 'Chitty Chitty Bang Bang' at the Greece Athena Performing Arts Center. Last Friday before the first performance, I had the opportunity to congratulate teacher and director Carl Wager on his 39 years of service. Wager is retiring at the end of this school year. Best wishes on your retirement!

Tomorrow night, Saturday March 12th, Mother of Sorrows will hold a Casino Night sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Greece. Casino Night will be held in the Church Hall (5000 Mt. Read Blvd.), beginning at 6:00.

Future Boxing Club will be having a Free Boxing Clinic the last two weeks in March. The clinic will be for children in Kindergarten to 12th grade. If the thought of learning the art of boxing ever crossed your child mind, this is his/ her opportunity to make this thought a reality.
