Out and About Events Around My District This Week

Legislatively Speaking

Earlier this week, my Senate colleagues and I passed our budget resolution. I am proud to support this resolution that reduces spending, provides no new taxes to our hard working families, and will help create new jobs in our area.

You can review documents pertaining to this budget resolution by visiting www.nysenate.gov.

I am also asking for your time and input regarding the budget. My 2011-2012 Budget Questionnaire is now available to fill out on my website by visiting www.robach.nysenate.gov, and clicking on the graphic on the left hand side of the website titled, "Senator Joe Robach's 2011-2012 Budget Questionnaire". Along with answering these yes or no questions, you will be able to provide additional comments for other ideas you have. Thank you for your time on this important matter.

Next Friday, March 25th, the Hilton School Community Presents its 6th Annual Operation Local Soldier to honor fallen heroes, veterans, servicemembers, and their families. This takes place from 6:45 until 9:00 p.m. at Merton Williams Middle School.

Also next Friday night, Children Awaiting Parents will hold its 2011 A Toast to Spring Wine Tasting at the Memorial Art Gallery from 6:30 until 9:30 p.m.

On Saturday, March 26th, Section Five will unveil its new Hall of Fame, which will be housed at Sahlen's Stadium (formerly PAETEC Park), at a 10:00 a.m. ceremony. At Noon, the Syracuse Orange football team will hold a spring scrimmage at the stadium. The event is open and free to the public.

St. Patrick's Day in Greece

On Thursday, the Town of Greece celebrated St. Patrick's Day with a party for seniors at the Community and Senior Center.

Guests were treated to a performance by the talented dancers from the Young School of Irish Dance, along with a lunch featuring corned beef and cabbage. For a photo album of this event, follow me at www.facebook.com/senatorjosepherobach.
