Getting Prepared for Election Day

Election day is now less than 3 weeks away. On Tuesday, November 2nd, you will head to the polls to cast your vote. Immediately, you will notice something new, the way in which you vote.

Monroe County is rolling out new voting machines this November. You may have already used these machines, if you voted in September's primaries.

If you have yet to use these machines, you might want to learn more information about voting by visit the Monroe County Board of Elections web site at www.monroecounty.gov/elections.

On that web site, you can also check where you are supposed to vote on November 2nd.

"Sweet House!" Musical to Fight Childhood Obesity

On Thursday, October 14th, I had the privilege to attend an event at Nazareth College. The Rochester Children's Theater used this opportunity to announce its upcoming musical "Sweet House!". The RCT will use this musical to fight childhood obesity. "Sweet House!" is based on the story of Hansel and Gretel, which addresses temptation and the consequences of poor choices. For additional photographs from Thursday's announcement, find me on facebook. Visit The Rochester Children's Theatre web site at www.rochesterchildrenstheatre.org for more information on this great musical!

Out and About! Some of the Events Around the District

On Saturday, October 16th, Alternatives for Battered Women present, "Walk a Mile in Her Shoes". This event asks men to literally walk one mile in a pair of women's shoes while raising funds for Alternatives for Battered Women. For more information, visit www.abwrochester.org.

The National Center for Missing and Exploited Children is holding its annual dinner auction Saturday night, October 16th, at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center. You can view the auction catalog on line at www.ncmenyauction.org.

Throughout the summer, you enjoyed the Concerts by the Shore at Ontario Beach Park. Did you know that the Ontario Beach Program Committee also has a fall series of concerts? Two more performances are left this fall. On Thursday, October 20th, Music Makers performs, and Thursday, October 27th, join the Rochester Metropolitan Jazz Orchestra performs. Both of these bands play from 7:15 to 9:00 p.m. on the 2nd floor of the Roger Robach Community Center. The Al Bruno Trio with Tom Monte play every week from 6:00 until 7:15 p.m.
