STATE SENATOR KEVIN PARKER HOSTS ANNUAL YOUTH SYMPOSIUM

In partnership with Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. and NY City Councilmember Farah Louis,

Brooklyn, N.Y. – In his continued efforts to support and empower young people navigate the many struggles and temptations of everyday life, State Senator Kevin Parker hosted yet another Youth Symposium and EmpoWOMENt. The annual event was held in conjunction with Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Inc. and Councilmember Farrah Louis.

Now in its 27th year, the event provides a platform for young people to engage in meaningful dialogue with their peers as well as community stakeholders. Wrapping around the serious panel discussion and workshop are opportunities for lighthearted games and other fun activities. Some of the EmpoWOMENt workshops of the day focused on financial literacy, mental, physical and spiritual health.

“I am always excited to collaborate with the amazing Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Inc.,” said Senator Parker, adding "this is a relationship that spans 30 years and will only continue to grow and get better as work toward our common interest of building and empowering community.”

Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority Inc. was created in the 1920’s by seven young educators at Butler University. The annual one day symposium is a nationwide event created in 1996 by the Past Grand Basileus of the sorority, the Late Dr. LaRona J. Morrisin. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority continues to carry her legacy.
