State Senate Passes Sen. Thomas Historic Bill Establishing Diwali, Eid as School Holidays

KEVIN THOMAS June 9, 2023

| ISSUE: DIWALI

If enacted, Eid al-Fitr, Eid al-Adha, Diwali, Lunar New Year, Tihar, Sandi Chhor Divas and Onam to be considered school holidays in districts where a sizable portion of students observe such religious or cultural days.

S.513B (THOMAS) - Relates to establishing certain cultural and religious observances as school holidays in certain districts

Senator Kevin Thomas said, “I am proud and excited that my legislation allowing more inclusive school holidays across New York State has passed after years of advocating for this. We should not force students and their parents to choose between celebrations and missing class. I’ve spent the last few years working with community and faith leaders to make more inclusive school holidays a reality - and now we are one step closer.

As a proud Indian-American, I know how important the promotion of religious and cultural diversity is for students of all backgrounds to feel included, seen and celebrated. I couldn’t be more thankful for the support from colleagues, educators and advocates who’ve led this fight.”
