| ISSUE: JOBS, JOBS & EMPLOYMENT

Brooklyn, NY – Senator Kevin Parker attended and sponsored the successful NYC Government Hiring Hall, which took place on Friday, June 16, 2023, at CUNY Medgar Evers College. The event brought together job seekers and local government offices, offering career opportunities for those interested in administrative, clerical, and healthcare positions. Many attendees were hired on the spot.

The Hiring Hall offered job seekers the opportunity to apply for multiple positions at once, meet with hiring managers, and learn about city job opportunities and hiring processes. The event attracted hundreds of participants, highlighting the community's strong demand for jobs and workforce development programs.

“This was an amazing opportunity for the City to meet its needs and the people in the community. Full-time jobs with benefits are the key to economic prosperity and communities. Thank you, Mayor Adams and Commissioner Christian, for this employment opportunity.”

Senator Parker has dedicated much of his career to creating sustainable economic development programs and initiatives that empower all New Yorkers. By sponsoring events such as the NYC Government Hiring Hall, he's working to provide residents with access to meaningful and rewarding career opportunities.
