| ISSUE: DOCTORS, COMMUNITY, HAITI

Brooklyn, NY- State Senator Kevin Parker is proud to honor Dr. Tamara Moise, the Co-founder/CEO and Medical Director of the esteemed Big Apple Urgent Care. Dr. Moise's unwavering commitment to providing high-quality healthcare services to the community, alongside her dedicated team has made a significant impact on the lives of many in Brooklyn. As a physician of Haitian descent, her mission is to serve the Little Haitian community providing culturally sensitive care. By understanding the unique healthcare challenges faced by her community, she has developed tailored strategies that address their specific needs

Dr. Moise, in collaboration with her highly skilled Physician Assistant, Wadson Fils, has revolutionized urgent care service provision within the Borough. Their dedication and compassion have been instrumental in meeting the healthcare needs of the community, particularly those in underserved areas.

Since its inception, In East Flatbush Big Apple Urgent Care has become a vital lifeline delivering immediate medical attention to individuals who would otherwise struggle to access timely care. The cutting-edge healthcare facility with state-of-the-art equipment offers a plethora of services, including -- but not limited to -- urgent care, vaccinations, diagnostic testing and specialized treatments. The compassionate approach to healthcare has nurtured a strong bond of trust between Dr. Moise and her patients ensuring they feel respected, understood, and supported throughout their medical journey.

"Dr. Moise is an outstanding medical professional who exemplifies dedication, compassion and a deep commitment to serving her community," said Senator Kevin Parker. "Her tireless efforts, along with the exceptional care provided by her team at Big Apple Urgent Care, have undoubtedly improved countless lives. It is an honor to recognize her as an invaluable asset to our district and to support her remarkable work."
