JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR. August 1, 2023

(August 1, 2023) - Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. encouraged youth to read by participating in the Queens Community House's Read-Aloud program at the Forest Hills Community Center for students in grades K-5. He chose the story "What I Tell Myself First – Children's Real-World Affirmations of Self-Esteem." This book targets children who have struggled with trauma and loss and encourages healing.
