Brooklyn, NY- NYS Senator Kevin Parker proudly recognized the outstanding achievements of the honorees at the 13th Annual Affi Awards Dinner Banquet Yacht Cruise. This highly anticipated event took place Saturday, October 7, at the prestigious Brooklyn Army Terminal, where guests gathered to celebrate the remarkable contributions made by the ARIIT Fuller Foundation.

"As a representative of this great community, I am incredibly proud of the ARIIT Fuller Foundation and commend them for their exemplary work," said Senator Kevin Parker. "Their tireless efforts in operating community food banks, organizing volunteer service Sundays, and fostering connections within the community have made a profound difference in the lives of countless individuals. They are true pillars of our society."

The ARIIT Fuller Foundation, a renowned organization committed to positively affecting the community, has demonstrated unwavering dedication to its mission. They have become a beacon of hope and service in the Brooklyn area with programs focused on community food banks, volunteer service Sundays, and community connections. With their inspiring programs and unwavering commitment, the Foundation has created a lasting impact on the Brooklyn community.
