Senator Pam Helming presented a New York State Empire Award to the Child Advocacy Center of the Finger Lakes at the Shine Bright for Children Gala held at Ventosa Vineyards. The Empire Award recognizes the contributions and achievements of businesses and organizations throughout New York State.

Senator Helming recognized the Child Advocacy Center for the outstanding work they do each day and their tireless support of child abuse survivors throughout our community.

Senator Helming said, "I am proud to recognize the many inspiring contributions of the Child Advocacy Center of the Finger Lakes. Thank you to Executive Director Ashley Davoli and her entire team for all that you do for our community."
