JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR. December 27, 2023

Addabbo is a graduate of the Molloy's Class of 1982.

Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. went back to Archbishop Molloy High School in Briarwood on Monday, December 18, 2023, for his annual visit to his alma mater to speak with students about government and politics, perhaps even inspiring them to get involved in their community. Addabbo is a graduate of the Molloy's Class of 1982 and inducted into the school's Hall of Fame.

"I enjoyed my learning experience here and now I spend my time helping to improve the community and passing state laws," Addabbo said. "I saw a lot of potential leaders in the room while re-visiting Molloy. I truly hope these students remain vocal on issues that interest them."
