Assembly Resolution No. 820

BY: M. of A. Cunningham

MEMORIALIZING Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim January 2024, as CBD Month in the State of New York

WHEREAS, The State of New York takes great pride in recognizing official months established to increase awareness of breakthrough wellness products that affect the lives of all New Yorkers; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to memorialize Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim January 2024, as CBD Month in the State of New York, in conjunction with the observance of National CBD Month; and

WHEREAS, Cannabidiol (CBD) has many health and wellness benefits, including relief from pain and anxiety; and

WHEREAS, CBD Month in New York State commemorates the widespread availability of various CBD products and their roles in the wellness journeys of consumers across the country and around the world; this month serves the purpose of spreading knowledge and creating awareness of CBD and its surprising benefits; and

WHEREAS, In 2018, Congress passed the Farm Bill and it was quickly signed into law; this crucial piece of legislation made growing hemp and the production of hemp-derived goods fully legal at the federal level;

WHEREAS, Most notably, the new law paved the way for cannabidiol to become more accessible to Americans than ever before; and

WHEREAS, Despite intense media coverage and discussion, many people are not aware of CBD's potential for health and wellness; those who are aware of CBD and its powerful properties often find themselves confused by mountains of ill-informed hearsay and mixed messages in the news; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the month of January, National CBD Month aims to shine a spotlight on the hemp-derived substance, clear up misunderstandings, change perceptions, and set standards for superior CBD products; and

WHEREAS, CBD works by interacting with the body's endocannabinoid system, a set of neural receptors which help regulate many processes, including mood, memory, digestion, the immune response, and even staying upright; and

WHEREAS, With eight to ten percent of New York State's 15.1 million citizens partaking in marijuana products, the State has earned around $215 million in CBD sales; and

WHEREAS, Overall, CBD helps preserve homeostasis: the balance your body maintains even when stresses from your environment try to throw it off; and

WHEREAS, By enhancing this system, CBD serves as a way to maintain whole-body wellness; many people find that taking daily CBD helps them stay calm and focused, and boosts their sense of well-being; and

WHEREAS, It is imperative that there be greater awareness of the benefits of cannabidiol, and more must be done to increase activity at local, State and National levels; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to memorialize Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim January 2024, as CBD Month in the State of New York; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to The Honorable Kathy Hochul, Governor of the State of New York.
