

2023-J1761

Senate Resolution No. 1761

BY: Senator ROLISON

MOURNING the death of Sister Ann Sakac, OP, devoted member of her community, and longest-serving president of Mount Saint Mary College

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to pay tribute to citizens of the State of New York whose lifework and civic endeavor served to enhance the quality of life in their communities and this great Empire State; and

WHEREAS, Sister Ann Sakac of Newburgh, New York, died on Wednesday, January 24, 2024, at the age of 91; and

WHEREAS, Sister Ann Sakac distinguished herself in her profession and by her sincere dedication and substantial contribution to the welfare of her community; and

WHEREAS, Serving as president of the college for 32 years beginning in 1976, Sister Ann Sakac was part of the college community since 1969 as a professor of English and assistant dean of students; and

WHEREAS, She stepped down from her role as president in 2008, but continued to be a part of the college community for the next 15 years;
and

WHEREAS, Sister Ann Sakac's commitment to excellence, and her spirit of humanity, carried over into all fields of enterprise, including charitable and civic endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Under her 32-year leadership at the college, Sister Ann Sakac oversaw much of the college's expansion from a fledgling institution to a pillar of the community; some of the highlights of Sister Ann Sakac's tenure as Mount president include the development of the college's first master's degree program; a new residence hall called Sakac Hall and renovations to Guzman Hall; and the renovation and development of the Mathematics, Science and Technology Center in Aquinas Hall; and

WHEREAS, Under her leadership, Montefiore St. Luke's Cornwall Hospital began accepting Mount Nursing students for fieldwork, and local companies like IBM in Poughkeepsie and Affron Fuel Oil Inc. in New Windsor helped the college to develop and thrive in the 1970s and 1980s; and

WHEREAS, Through her connections to generous local businesspersons of the community, Sister Ann Sakac was able to secure funding to make improvements to the campus under her purview; the improvements included the Elaine and William Kaplan Recreation Center; the Kaplan Family Library and Learning Center; The Kaplan Field; and more; and

WHEREAS, The Sister Ann Memorial Endowed Scholarship which supports incoming students who have financial need and the academic aptitude to succeed at the college was established in December 2023, thanks to a gift from Penny Ducker, Class of 1973, serving as an admirable tribute to the legacy of the former president; and

WHEREAS, A wish of Sister Ann Sakac's was for all Mount Saint Mary students, past and present, to embody the ideals of service, spreading the importance and impact of such service far beyond the borders of the college; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Sister Ann Sakac leaves behind a legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will remain as a comforting memory to all she served and befriended; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to mourn the death of Sister Ann Sakac, OP, devoted member of her community, and longest-serving president of Mount Saint Mary College; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the family of Sister Ann Sakac.
