

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

James Sanders Jr.

Unlocking Funding Opportunities" Grant Writing Seminar with NY State Senator James Sanders Jr.

OLALEKAN OMODUNBI April 15, 2024

| ISSUE: FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

On Thursday, April 11, 2024, New York State Senator James Sanders Jr. hosted an informative grant writing seminar, "Unlocking Funding Opportunities," at the Springfield Gardens Church of the Nazarene. Aspiring grant writers and community leaders gathered to learn how to secure funding for their important projects.

The seminar featured esteemed guest speakers, Rev. Dr. Laticia Godette and Susan Shiroma, who shared their valuable expertise on navigating grant applications, crafting compelling proposals, and accessing vital resources. Attendees left empowered with knowledge and tools to drive positive change in their communities.

Senator Sanders expressed his gratitude to the participants, saying, "Your dedication to making a difference in our neighborhoods is inspiring. Let's continue working together to unlock funding and foster growth within our communities."

Stay tuned for future events and initiatives from Senator Sanders' office that are focused on supporting and empowering our communities.