Senator Pam Helming visited the Honeoye Central School District to speak with a 12th grade Participation in Government Class. The class had prepared many questions for the Senator, including wanting to learn more about her role as a New York State Senator.

Senator Helming said "If you want to be inspired, talk to our young people! Our youth are our future leaders, and it is always an honor to hear their ideas and concerns. Special thank you to Honeoye's Participation in Government Teacher, Carter Bunce, for the opportunity to Speak with your class."
