compassion of individuals, such as Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn who upheld the values of community life and who, through their great actions, epitomized the best of humanity; and

WHEREAS, This Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn posthumously upon the occasion of her designation for special recognition by the Brooklyn Children's Museum (BCM), celebrating her remarkable 33-year legacy as a BCM Trustee at its Spring Gala on Thursday, June 6, 2024; and

WHEREAS, Founded in 1899 as the world's first children's museum, Brooklyn Children's Museum is New York City's largest cultural institution designed especially for families; and

WHEREAS, Proudly based in Crown Heights, Brooklyn, Brooklyn Children's Museum serves 300,000 children and caregivers annually with exhibits and programs grounded in visual arts, music and performance, natural science, and world cultures; and

WHEREAS, Brooklyn Children's Museum holds to the principles of interdisciplinary and inquiry-based learning, encouraging children to explore their world from multiple perspectives; sensory learning through hands-on, physical experiences; appreciation of culture and community, with a focus on socio-emotional learning and interpersonal relationships; stimulation of parent-child dialogue and the provision of family resources, and the empowerment of children to think of themselves as agents of community change and inspire responsible and civic engagement; and

WHEREAS, As a cherished member of the board, Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn upheld these principles with grade and dedication throughout her 33-year tenure; it is her legacy that helped shape BCM's direction and growth, and it is with deep pride and admiration that we honor her today; and

WHEREAS, Rare indeed is the impressive dedication shown by an individual for the benefit of others which Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn displayed throughout her life; and

WHEREAS, Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn's infinite selflessness and benevolence will shine on through her family's vivid and happy memories; her insight and strength will forever serve as a beacon of love, light and hope to the countless lives she touched; and

WHEREAS, Armed with a humanistic spirit and imbued with a sense of compassion, Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn leaves behind a legacy which will long endure the passage of time and will remain as a comforting memory to all who were privileged to have known and loved such an amazing woman; she will be deeply missed and truly merits the grateful tribute of this Legislative Body; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Margaret "Peggi" Einhorn posthumously upon the occasion of her designation for special recognition by the Brooklyn Children's Museum on June 6, 2024; and be it further
