NYS Senator Dean Murray Addresses Tax Incentives at Albany Public Hearings

DEAN MURRAY | October 24, 2024

(Albany, NY) – NYS Senator Dean Murray was in Albany this week as the Economic Development, Commerce and Small Business Committee conducted hearings. The Senator is always keeping an eye on your pocketbooks and ensuring your tax money is spent properly.

“As the Ranking Minority member of the Senates' "Economic Development, Commerce and Small Business Committee", I spent the day in Albany in hearings, examining and evaluating the economic impacts of tax incentive programs to determine the extent of the benefits they provide to our economy and our communities. We must make sure that if we are providing taxpayer funded incentives, they must produce real results,” stated Senator Murray.
