NYS SENATOR PAM HELMING

Representing the 54th District

Senate Republican Leader Rob Ortt has re-appointed Senator Helming Chair of the Senate Republican Conference, a pivotal role in steering the Conference's agenda for the upcoming 2025 legislative session.

Senator Ortt said, "First and most importantly, thank you for your steadfast support as we enter the new legislative session. I look forward to continuing our work together as a conference to make New York a more affordable, safer, and healthier state for hardworking families.”

Senator Helming adds, “I am deeply honored to be appointed Chair of the Senate Republican Conference. I am committed to working diligently to enhance the quality of life for our constituents by alleviating the financial burdens faced by families and businesses while addressing critical issues of crime and public safety.”

In addition to her leadership role, Senator Helming has been appointed as the Ranking Member on two influential State Senate committees: Housing, Construction and Community Development, and Insurance. She will also serve as a member of several other significant committees, including Agriculture, Cultural Affairs, Tourism, Parks and Recreation, Finance, Racing, Gaming and Wagering, Rules, and the Legislative Commission on Rural Resources.
