| ISSUE: 2025-26 BUDGET

Senator Christopher J. Ryan today announced a series of major wins benefitting Senate District 50 in the New York State Fiscal Year 2026 Enacted Budget. The final plan delivers over $1 billion in investments, including historic funding for education, workforce development, transportation infrastructure, healthcare, veterans resources, and Micron-related projects to support the region's transformation into a global semiconductor hub.

"This budget isn't just balanced — it's bold," said Sen. Ryan. "We're investing in the people, places, and partnerships that will define Central New York for decades to come."

Strengthening Regional Infrastructure

Totaling $32,327,845 in local roads and transportation for SD50, funding includes:

- CHIPS – $19,513,300 (8.12% increase)
- Extreme Winter Recovery (EWR) – $3,042,555
- PAVE-NY – $4,493,502
- Pave Our Potholes (POP) – $2,995,668

- State Touring Routes (STR) – $2,282,818

The budget also includes $116 million in water infrastructure investments tied directly to Micron’s planned semiconductor facility, supporting system capacity upgrades and clean water access for surrounding communities.

Additionally, Onondaga County is authorized to use design-build and best value procurement for the Oak Orchard Wastewater Treatment Project, improving delivery efficiency for this critical infrastructure initiative.

SUNY Investments

Central New York’s healthcare system receives a transformational boost with $450 million in capital funding for SUNY Upstate’s new emergency room, servicing 17 counties in New York State. SUNY Oswego receives $16 million as part of a $114 million increase in SUNY operating aid, and an additional $5.2 million in capital funding for campus-wide maintenance.

Workforce, Jobs and Economic Development

Over $5 million is included for job training and economic growth:

- $1 million – Manufacturers Intermediary Apprenticeship Program (MIAP)
- $750,000 – Manufacturers Association of Central New York (MACNY)
- $500,000 – MACNY’s Real Life Rosies
- $1.5 million – CenterState CEO (through Empire State Development)

- $100,000 – Workforce development with Onondaga Community College to enhance care for people with disabilities

Additionally, the Excelsior Jobs Program was extended by five years, adding new reporting requirements tied to semiconductor research and workforce development and requiring employers using workforce retention credits to maintain staffing levels or face a reduced credit.
