BY: M. of A. Eachus

MEMORIALIZING Governor Kathy Hochul to proclaim December 3, 2025, as International Day of Persons proclaimed in 1992, by the United Nations General Assembly; the issues and mobilize support for the dignity, rights and well-being of persons with disabilities and to seek to increase awareness of gains derived from the integration of persons with disabilities in every aspect of political, social, economic and cultural life; and

WHEREAS, Furthermore, International Day of Persons with Disabilities is a day to help everyone become more compassionate and understanding of the challenges faced by people with disabilities; the day does not discriminate between mental and physical disabilities, and the spirit of the day is to ensure that all people in New York State, the Nation, as well as the World have equal opportunities for work, play, health, and success; and

WHEREAS, The global crisis of COVID-19 deepened pre-existing inequalities, exposed the extent of exclusion and highlighted that work on disability inclusion is imperative; approximately one billion people with disabilities are among the most excluded groups in our society and were among the hardest hit in this crisis; and

WHEREAS, Even under normal circumstances, persons with disabilities are less likely to access health care, education, employment and to participate in the community; an integrated approach is required to ensure that persons with disabilities are not left behind; and

WHEREAS, Individuals and organizations which bring greater awareness to physical health issues, and assist people in their quest to overcome these obstacles, are a great benefit to the health and welfare of all citizens; now, therefore, be it
