Senator Ryan to Host First Town Hall June 28

CHRISTOPHER J. RYAN June 12, 2025

| ISSUE: SYRACUSE TOWN HALL, TOWN HALL EVENT

State Senator Christopher J. Ryan (NY-50) announced today that he will host his first town hall on Saturday, June 28, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Roxboro Road Middle School, located at 300 Bernard Street, Syracuse, NY 13211.

The town hall is open to all residents of the communities Sen. Ryan represents in Onondaga and Oswego counties. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear updates on legislative efforts in Albany, ask questions, and raise issues directly with the senator and his team.

“This job starts with listening,” said Sen. Ryan. “I want to hear directly from the people I represent. This town hall is an in-person, in-district opportunity to continue conversations with the communities I serve.”

Constituents will also be able to connect with members of the senator’s district office for assistance with state services and casework following the town hall, until 1:15 p.m.

Constituents can RSVP and submit questions ahead of time.
