Addabbo Acknowledges Anniversary and Efforts of Community-Minded Glendale Insurance Agent

JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR. July 18, 2025

Senator Addabbo presented a citation to State Farm agent, Flor Cawley, third from left, and her staff on their fifth anniversary, and recognized Maria Gengo, second from right, for her 30 plus years with the company.

Senator Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr. presented a citation to the Flor Cawley Agency State Farm Insurance on July 16, 2025, in recognition of its 5th anniversary and to thank Ms. Cawley for partnering with Senator Addabbo's Office on assisting the Woodhaven Mural Project, donating $1000 for supplies related to prepping the mural wall. Senator Addabbo also recognized State Farm staffer Maria Gengo for her more than 30 years of total service with State Farm Insurance.

Earlier in the year, Ms. Cawley traveled to Albany to meet with state legislators, including Senator Addabbo, to discuss various related industry issues and legislation. Since then, Ms. Cawley has made a similar trip to Washington D.C. to meet with federal legislators, such as Congresswoman Grace Meng.

“Flor Cawley's dedication to the insurance industry and community exemplifies the true spirit of service and partnership,” Addabbo said. “Her support for local projects like the Woodhaven Mural helps foster community pride and unity. My office and I are proud to honor Ms. Cawley and her staff.”
