

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jose M. Serrano

Three Kings Day Parade

JOSE M. SERRANO January 6, 2025

Senator Serrano celebrated the vibrant annual Three Kings Day festivities with the community at El Museo del Barrio. The joyful event featured a delightful community breakfast, bringing together families and friends, followed by a lively parade that meandered through the colorful streets of East Harlem, proudly showcasing the rich cultural heritage of the neighborhood.

Three Kings Day holds deep significance for many communities, symbolizing hope, joy, and the spirit of giving. Senator Serrano takes great pride in championing legislation to honor this cherished celebration. His proposed bill, S. 1065, aims to establish Three Kings Day as an official school holiday, enabling students and families to fully participate in the traditions and activities that define this significant day. For more details on the bill, you can read further here.

RELATED LEGISLATION

2025-S1065A

- Introduced
- - In Committee Assembly
 - In Committee Senate
- - On Floor Calendar Assembly
 - On Floor Calendar Senate
- - Passed Assembly
 - Passed Senate
- Delivered to Governor
- Signed By Governor
-

Establishes Three King's day as a school holiday for all public schools in a city having a population of one million or more inhabitants

January 07, 2025

In Senate Committee New York City Education

Sponsored by Jose M. Serrano

Do you support this bill?