Manhattan Community Board 8 Spring Arts Show

JOSE M. SERRANO June 1, 2025

| ISSUE: ARTS & CULTURE

On June 1st, Senator Serrano joined an enthusiastic gathering of community members at the Manhattan Community Board 8's Spring Arts Show, held in the vibrant neighborhood of Yorkville. As Chair of the Senate Committee on Cultural Affairs, Tourism, Parks, and Recreation, Senator Serrano expressed his appreciation for the diverse and inspiring creations of local artists showcased throughout the event. During his speech, he emphasized the vital role that the arts play in enriching our cultural landscape and fostering community engagement. He also stressed the crucial need to offer ongoing support for our local artists, who make a significant contribution to the creative fabric of our society. Our community boards are vital to the community, and events like this promote artistic expression. Senator Serrano encouraged attendees to continue championing the arts in their neighborhoods.
