

2009-J6631

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring William G. Boulter upon the occasion of receiving the 2010 Patriot of the Year Award from the Webster Knights of Columbus on October 9, 2010

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize that the quality and character of life in the communities across New York State are reflective of the concerned and dedicated efforts of those organizations and individuals who devote themselves to the welfare of the community and its citizenry; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to honor William G. Boulter upon the occasion of receiving the 2010 Patriot of the Year Award from the Webster Knights of Columbus at a dinner to be held at the Webster Columbus Center on Saturday, October 9, 2010; and

WHEREAS, As the President and Chief Executive Officer of Boulter Rigging Corp., William G. Boulter has continually demonstrated extreme competence, extraordinary intelligence and diligent leadership in his unwavering service to his community and consequently has been designated for this most prestigious commendation; and

WHEREAS, William G. Boulter grew up in Spencerport, New York; upon graduation from high school, he attended Rochester Business Institute and the Rochester Institute of Technology where he studied transportation; and

WHEREAS, In 1964, William G. Boulter joined the family business, Boulter Rigging Corp., as a truck driver; the company has a long and distinguished history beginning in 1892, delivering coal and ice in the Rochester, New York region with a horse and buggy; eventually furniture was also delivered; in 1924 the company became Rochester's first motorized carting company; by the 1950s the company had grown into a large household carrier for such firms as Global, Greyhound, and Lyon van lines; and

WHEREAS, In 1972, William G. Boulter began the carting company's partner firm, Boulter Rigging, which now provides hauling services for more than 150 commercial accounts for both long and short distances; and

WHEREAS, William G. Boulter's business focuses on the relocation of heavy machinery, material handling, conveyor systems, transportation and warehousing and steel fabrication; the firm provides services with its own fleet of power equipment and 150 trailers; and

WHEREAS, Today, William G. Boulter oversees 55 employees as well as a beautiful facility consisting of corporate offices and warehousing spreading over 300,000 square feet in the Basket Road industrial area; and

WHEREAS, Despite his busy professional life, William G. Boulter has been called upon to contribute his time and talents to countless civic and charitable endeavors and has always given of himself unstintingly; and

WHEREAS, William G. Boulter is a member of the Webster Chamber of Commerce and has served as a member of its Board of Directors for the last three years; an exemplary leader, he is committed to help build Webster, New York's industrial and commercial base; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the entire period of his community service, a period of constructive involvement, William G. Boulter has stood constant in dignity, good grace and humor; and

WHEREAS, With him throughout have been his wife, Sherry, their four children, and one grandchild, all of whom feel privileged to be a part of his life and rejoice in his achievements; and

WHEREAS, Rare indeed is the impressive dedication shown by an individual for the benefit of others which William G. Boulter has displayed throughout his life; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that those who enhance the quality of life in their community and have shown a long and sustained commitment to the maintenance of high standards in their profession certainly have earned the recognition and applause of all the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor William G. Boulter upon the occasion of receiving the 2010 Patriot of the Year Award from the Webster Knights of Columbus on October 9, 2010; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to William G. Boulter.