

2013-K208

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION honoring John D. Fulco, M.D. FSIR upon the occasion of his retirement from Schenectady Radiology, P.C. after 33 years of dedicated service to the field of medicine

WHEREAS, The State of New York takes great pride in acknowledging its esteemed residents who have distinguished themselves in their profession; and

WHEREAS, John D. Fulco, M.D., is being honored by his friends and colleagues upon the occasion of his retirement after 33 years of dedicated service to the field of medicine; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John D. Fulco began his career by attending The Citadel in South Carolina; he went on to earn a degree in biology and chemistry from the University of Long Island and his Doctor of Medicine and Surgery degree at the University of Bologna in Italy; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John D. Fulco completed his internship and radiology residency at Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center, and was named the Center's 1974-1975 Intern of the Year; and

WHEREAS, During his final year at Long Island Jewish-Hillside Medical Center, Dr. John D. Fulco served as Chief Resident; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John D. Fulco completed a fellowship in Cardiovascular and Interventional Radiology at Tufts-New England Medical Center in Boston, where he received certification in Diagnostics and his Interventional certificate; and

WHEREAS, For 25 years, Dr. John D. Fulco gave his time and his talents teaching and advising courses on Radiological Technology at Hudson Valley Community College; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John D. Fulco served as Chief of Staff at Ellis Medicine from 1992 to 1994, as well as serving on many boards and committees aiding the growth and betterment of the hospital; and

WHEREAS, In 1990, Dr. John D. Fulco was honored by the Medical Society of the State of New York with the Presidential Citation in recognition of his dedication to community services; he also received the SIR Service Award for his commitment as the chair of SIRPAC; and

WHEREAS, Dr. John D. Fulco married Claire Bailey in 1965, and together they have three children and four grandchildren; he is looking forward to spending his retirement surrounded by family and friends; and

WHEREAS, Throughout his career, Dr. John D. Fulco has served his patients with compassion and care; he has contributed to the maintenance and enhancement of the highest professional standards, sharing with others his knowledge and expertise, as well as his dedication and commitment to quality health care; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that those who enhance the quality of life in their community and have shown a long and sustained commitment to the maintenance of high standards in their profession, certainly have earned the recognition and applause of all the citizens of this great Empire State; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor John D. Fulco, M.D. FSIR upon the occasion of his retirement from Schenectady Radiology, P.C. after 33 years of dedicated service to the field of medicine; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Dr. John D. Fulco.