LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION congratulating the Marsh-Link-Pollock Farm upon the occasion of its being placed on the National Register of Historic Places on December 22, 2014

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to commend the preservation of historical landmarks which served to enhance the growth of the State of New York, ensuring that the complete history of our State and Nation is shared with present and future generations of citizens; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to congratulate the Marsh-Link-Pollock Farm in Brunswick, New York, upon the occasion of it being placed on the National Register of Historic Places; this momentous event was celebrated on Monday, December 22, 2014; and

WHEREAS, The National Register of Historic Places is the nation's official list of buildings, structures, objects, sites, and districts worthy of preservation for their significance in American history, architecture, archaeology, and culture; and

WHEREAS, The National Register was established by the NATIONAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION ACT OF 1966 to ensure that as a matter of public policy, properties significant in national, state, and local history are considered in the planning of federal undertakings, and to encourage historic preservation initiatives by state and local governments and the private sector; and

WHEREAS, The Marsh-Link-Pollock Farmstead includes a well-preserved 1840s farmhouse; it is a significant local resource that represents Brunswick's agrarian past; and

WHEREAS, The National Register of Historic Places understands that New York State's agricultural industry is part of the foundation upon which our distinct American heritage is built; the Marsh-Link-Pollock Farm is a lasting example of our Nation's important farming legacy; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to congratulate the Marsh-Link-Pollock Farm, in Brunswick, New York, upon the occasion of its being placed on the National Register of Historic Places; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to the Marsh-Link-Pollock Farm.
