

2015-J2853

LEGISLATIVE RESOLUTION commemorating the 50th Anniversary of Ursula of Switzerland

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize the achievements of those individuals and businesses which substantially contribute to the economic vitality of their communities and the entire Empire State; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Ursula of Switzerland to be celebrated in the summer of 2015; and

WHEREAS, Ursula Garreau's headquarters are at 31 Mohawk Avenue in Waterford, in the former Ormsby-Laughlin Textile Mills on the Mohawk River; and

WHEREAS, Up until 13 years ago, all her dresses were made in Waterford, now they are sewn in Manhattan and then returned to the warehouse for shipping around the world, each tagged proudly with "Made in the USA"; and

WHEREAS, All the design work is done in Waterford by Ursula and her assistant, Tara Wheeler; when she was 23 years old, Ursula moved to New York City; she moved again to Schenectady in 1968; and

WHEREAS, At one time in her career, she had four stores in the Capital Region; local dress and bridal shops still carry her line of formal attire as well as lasuisse, a bridal collection; and

WHEREAS, The warehouse space contracts between 5,000 and 7,000 dresses and other attire in sizes 4 to 28; and

WHEREAS, The Ursula of Switzerland facility in Waterford includes a boutique and a retail space, and hosts events in the warehouse for people to shop and contribute to nonprofits such as the Center for Disability Services and the Center of Missing and Exploited Children; and WHEREAS, On the second floor of the warehouse, her staff mixes high tech with old fashioned techniques to make clothes from scratch; patterns are created on a mannequin, and then a digitizer creates computer images of paper patterns; they also use steel sewing machines that look like they came from another era; and

WHEREAS, In July, Ursula Garreau will celebrate her 50th Anniversary on the banks of the Mohawk in Waterford, where she first potted the Romanesque Revival decades ago from the deck of a friend's boat, and brought a bit of grace, and economic development, to an historic town; and

WHEREAS, It is with great pleasure that this Legislative Body acknowledges this exceptional business and its contributions to the local and State economies, fully confident that it will continue to enjoy the sparkling successes it has experienced thus far; now, therefore, be it
RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Ursula of Switzerland; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Ursula Garreau.