January 3, 2006

Bronx, NY - With temperatures dropping and flu incidents on the rise across New York, State Senator Jeff Klein (D-Bronx/Westchester) is making flu shots available to his constituents, free of charge. Flu shot appointments are available on a first-call, first-served basis by calling the numbers below.

"Immunizing yourself against the flu is one of the best ways to stay healthy this winter," Klein said, "and I am pleased to be able to provide this free service to my constituents."

Senator Klein, in association with Jacobi Medical Center, Congressman Joe Crowley, Assemblyman Mike Benedetto and Councilman Jimmy Vacca, will be offering flu shots at several locations.
