Senator Klein Presents State Grant To Throggs Neck Jasa Senior Center

JEFFREY D. KLEIN April 27, 2006

“Our seniors have literally built the communities we enjoy today and I am pleased to have secured this grant for them as a token of my immense appreciation for their contributions to our neighborhoods,” Senator Klein said.

Shirley Brockway, longtime Director of the Throggs Neck JASA, thanked him for his support saying, “Senator Klein has been a great friend to the seniors and we appreciate him securing this grant for us. I know this funding will make a big difference and thank him on behalf of the entire community.”
