Jeffrey D. Klein

Tied To Terrorism

JEFFREY D. KLEIN July 23, 2007

NEW YORK—As a follow-up to his June 2007 analysis of New York State pension fund assets which found that $12 billion of New York's total $75 billion in equity assets are invested in companies that do business with nations that sponsor terrorism, Senator Jeff Klein (D-Bronx/Westchester), today released further information about the exact amount of money invested in companies doing business with Iran, North Korea, Sudan and Syria.

Syria (approx. $9 billion or 12% of the total portfolio). The total exceeds the 235 holdings or 16% of total equity assets cited in Klein's original report, Terrorist Treasury: Investing in Our Enemies, because some companies are active in more than one terror-sponsoring nation.
