State Senator Malcolm A. Smith (D-Queens) announced today that he will be co-sponsoring the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development's (HPD) homeownership forum. The event will take place on July 12, at 6:30 pm at the Southern Queens Park Association located in Jamaica, NY.

"I am thrilled to be able to co-sponsor this important event with the HPD. I hope that this event will be beneficial to first-time home buyers as well as homeowners who are considering home improvements," said Senator Smith.

"Buying a home for the first time can be a daunting task for most people. The HPD is a terrific resource for first-time buyers as well as homeowners who are faced with the challenge of obtaining a loan for home repairs or improvements. I hope the entire community will take advantage of this informative event and gain some valuable knowledge about buying and repairing their homes," said Senator Smith.

For more information about this event contact the Southern Queens Park Association at 718-276-4630 ext 100, or the NYC Department of Housing Preservation and Development at 212-863-6275.
