Pelham Seniors Celebrate X-mas With Senator Klein

JEFFREY D. KLEIN December 9, 2007

NEW ROCHELLE, NY-Partaking in the Pelham Seniors' Annual Christmas Party, Senator Klein dropped by the Davenport Club to schmooze with the crowd and take in the holiday spirit. As a long time supporter of the group the Senator had the pleasure of taking dozens of seniors to an all expenses paid afternoon at the theatre this past September. Eager seniors enjoyed a three course luncheon at the Westchester Broadway Theatre and a special viewing of the award winning Broadway production, Little Shop of Horrors. The Senator listened to constituent concerns and addressed the crowd on a number of issues from the crisis in the sub-prime mortgage market to terror free investing.
