Senator Johnson Announces Grant For Babylon Public Library

OWEN H. JOHNSON June 13, 2007

State Senator Owen H. Johnson (4th Senate District, Babylon), Chairman of the Finance Committee, recently announced that he has secured a $50,000 state grant for the Babylon Public Library to upgrade the library's computer servers, public computers, broadband width and wireless capabilities.
