

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Malcolm Smith

Statement From Austin Shafran, Spokesman For The Senate Majority Conference Re: Agency Spending Reductions

MALCOLM A. SMITH October 6, 2009

"We support the Governor's efforts to get spending under control. The Senate Majority is committed to working with the executive and the other leaders to protect New Yorkers from further tax and fee increases and to preserve vital services. With real transparency and real accountability, we will find the real savings we need to make New York more affordable for middle income families and small businesses."
