Senator Marty Golden Announces Plans for 2009 Halloween WALK & Fair

MARTIN J. GOLDEN October 20, 2009

Brooklyn- State Senator Marty Golden today announced plans for the 2009 Halloween Walk & Fair scheduled for Saturday, October 31, 2009 beginning at 2:00 p.m. at Owl's Head Park, located at 67th Street and Colonial Road.

The 15th Annual event will feature free of charge: The Haunted Walk, the Fairytale Forest, a pumpkin patch, a costume contest and much more. The event will also feature rides for the children, pony rides, face painting and "Dracula's Food Court".

Senator Marty Golden stated, "The Haunted Halloween Walk and Fair has become a fun-filled event in our community that is a safe alternative to Trick-or-Treating. This is one of my favorite events of the year, for this event has become truly a tradition and special day full of fun, ghosts, goblins, tricks and treats. I am proud to be hosting the Halloween Walk again this year for the children and families of our neighborhood."

This year there will be a limited opportunity to purchase V.I.P. Passes for a small $5.00 donation until October 29th, which will entitle 1 adult and up to 4 children to enter the Halloween Walk through the sponsors entrance. Sponsor passes are available for purchase at the following locations:

Boragi Florist - 7913 3rd Avenue

Ahl Tone - 6749-5th Avenue

Toys Toys Toys 8224-3rd Avenue

What's Next - 6922-3rd Avenue

Havin' A Party - 8414-5th Avenue

Kaleidoscope Toys - 8722-3rd Avenue
