

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Martin J. Golden

Senator Golden Makes 2010 Nyc Parking Calendar Available

Martin J. Golden

December 22, 2009

Brooklyn- State Senator Marty Golden today is announcing that his office has made available the 2010 New York City Parking Calendar at his district offices.

The parking calendar features a listing of the 2010 Alternate Side Parking Rules Suspension Calendar for the new year. The calendar also features an explanation of parking signs as well as important phone numbers to help you navigate parking violations, gather information on street cleaning rules, towed vehicle information, report transportation related complaints and inquire about construction projects effecting travel in New York City.

To obtain a calendar, or for assistance with reporting potholes, nonfunctioning traffic or street lights, please call Senator Golden's office at (718) 238-6044 or e-mail him at golden@senate.state.ny.us Residents are also encouraged to visit Senator Golden's offices, located at 7408-5th Avenue and 3604 Quentin Road, to get a copy of the 2010 Parking Calendar.