Restore the STAR Rebate - The 2009 State Budget – a plan I opposed – eliminated those rebate checks. As a result, local homeowners will not get their STAR rebate check, which will cost hard-working families hundreds of dollars.

Cap State Spending - Hardworking families across Long Island are tightening their belts, and it's time Albany did the same. That's why Senator Owen Johnson is leading the fight to enact a real spending cap that will force Albany to live within its means.
