A URGENT MESSAGE FROM SENATOR GOLDEN

“LOCAL AND EXPRESS BUS SERVICE IS IN JEOPARDY”

Please attend a rally and forum to save the future of bus service in our community

Wednesday, May 19, 2010, 7:00 p.m., Xaverian High School, 7100 Shore Road, Brooklyn

SENATOR MARTY GOLDEN WANTS THE METROPOLITAN TRANSIT AUTHORITY (M.T.A.) TO HEAR FROM YOU ABOUT THESE SERVICE CHANGES SCHEDULED TO GO INTO EFFECT

Complete elimination of the X37 and X38 (Uptown Express Bus Service)

Complete weekend express bus service elimination on the X 27 and X 28

Complete elimination of the B23

Complete elimination of the B 37, with rerouting of B70 to supplement partial service

Overnight service on the B 31

Weekend service elimination on the B2

Weekday/Weekend/Overnight service reductions changes on the B4, B16 and B 64

What do you think about the proposed MTA budget?

How will you get to and from work?

How will you get to the doctor or to the store?

Please make every effort to attend this important meeting. The MTA needs to understand that these service changes will have a devastating impact on our community.

Representatives of the M.T.A. will be in attendance

Wednesday, May 19, 2010

7:00 p.m.

Xaverian High School Auditorium

7100 Shore Road, Brooklyn, New York
