

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Liz Krueger

State Sen. Liz Krueger & Assemblyman Micah Kellner Want to Put Governor on the Spot Once a Month

LIZ KRUEGER June 28, 2010

| ISSUE: RULES, GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS, SESSION, CONSTITUENTS CORNER

ALBANY - The Capitol convenience store better stock up on rotten tomatoes.

Borrowing an idea from England, two state lawmakers want to force the governor to face the Legislature once a month for a one-hour round of questions.

Assemblyman Micah Kellner and Sen. Liz Krueger, both Manhattan Democrats, plan to introduce the bill today.

Read more: http://www.nydailynews.com/news/2010/05/24/2010-05-24_2_pols_wanna_put_gov_on_spot.html