

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Ruben Diaz

Carl Paladino to Break Bread WITH Hispanic Ministers and Community Leaders

RUBEN DIAZ August 24, 2010

| COMMITTEE: LATINO CAUCUS

August 23, 2010

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CARL PALADINO TO BREAK BREAD WITH HISPANIC MINISTERS AND COMMUNITY LEADERS

Carl Paladino, The upstate businessman running for Governor of the State of New York, has accepted an invitation from State Senator Rev. Ruben Diaz to break bread with Hispanic Ministers.

Senator Diaz, who is also the President of the New York Hispanic Clergy Organization and Pastor of the Christian Community Neighborhood Church in the Bronx, stated that this breakfast meeting will take place this Thursday, August 26, 2010, at 9:00AM, at Maestro's Caterer's located at 1703 Bronxdale Avenue, In the county of the Bronx.

According to Senator Ruben Diaz, An invitation has been sent to New York Attorney General Andrew Cuomo and to Mr. Rick Lazio also candidates for Governor of the State of New York. "The purpose of this meeting is to hear their responses to our community needs such as Education, Health, Employment, Housing and other issues". By doing this, our community will be educated in their position and will have a better understanding regardless of their political parties" stated Senator Diaz.

As of today, Hon. Andrew Cuomo has been the only one who has not responded to the invitation.

###