bought and everyone is set for Halloween. Last week, I gave some tips related to costumes. As you take your kids out for Halloween on Sunday, keep in mind some of these additional safety tips:

- Accompany your children at all times
- Visit only the homes that have outside lights on
- Watch out for decorations, such as pumpkins, lights, or other popular Halloween items that may be in the sidewalk leading up to a door
- Inspect your children's candy when returning home. Throw away any candy that is not sealed.

Best wishes to your family for a safe and Happy Halloween!

Next Friday, the Federation of Social Workers will honor workers and volunteers in the human services field at the 2010 Human Service Worker of the Year Awards Luncheon at the Rochester Riverside Convention Center. For details on this great event and to read about this year's recipients, visit www.fsw-union.com.

Also, next Friday, the Town of Greece will celebrate and honor all small businesses at a luncheon at Ridgemont Country Club. Also, the 2010 Small Business of the Year
