

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

Community Update for Week Ending November 12th

JOSEPH E. ROBACH November 12, 2010

There are many benefits available to our veterans when they return from service. Also, returning service men and women may be eligible for awards from the State of New York Division of Military & Naval Affairs.

If you have questions about these benefits, or if you are seeking honors and awards, you can e-mail me or call my office for assistance with this process.

I thank all of you who have served, and continue to serve, our great country.

Honoring a 100-year old
Greece Resident

On Tuesday night, I had will have a boxing tournament against the Head Bangers Boxing Club from Washington D.C. In addition, former heavyweight champion Leon Spinks and Buffalo native Baby Joe Mesi will speak to the boxers. Future Boxing Club is located at 460 Buffalo Road.

On Sunday, the Town of Brighton will hold a Memorial Project kick-off and reception at Brighton Town Hall beginning at 1:00 p.m. The 1.5-acre memorial in Buckland Town Park is scheduled to be completed by June 2011.

On Thursday, the Arts and Cultural Council of Greater Rochester presents its 27th Annual Arts

Here is my community update for the week ending Friday, November 12, 2010. As always, you can view it in full screen by clicking on the link below.