State Senate Honors Freeport's Longtime Library Director

CHARLES J. FUSCHILLO JR. January 28, 2011

Senator Fuschillo Sponsors Senate Resolution Honoring Dave Opatow's Many Years of Service to Freeport Community

New York State Senator Charles J. Fuschillo, Jr. (R-Merrick) announced that the New York State Senate has passed a legislative resolution he sponsored honoring former Freeport Library Director Dave Opatow for his many years of service to the Freeport community. Mr. Opatow retired at the end of 2010 following 24 years of service to the Library.

The resolution honored Mr. Opatow for his "faithful, conscientious, and valuable service" to the Freeport Library over the last 24 years, noting that he "served with loyalty, honor, and distinction" and "earned the admiration, esteem, and affection of his colleagues."

"For 24 years, Dave Opatow served the residents of Freeport as Library Director, working hard to make the Library the valuable community resource that it is today. It's wonderful to see such a good and decent man recognized by the State Senate for his many years of dedicated service. I thank Dave for his service, congratulate him on a job well done, and wish him all the best as he begins his retirement and a new chapter of his life," said Senator Fuschillo.

With the Senate passage of the legislative resolution, David Opatow's name and record of service will forever be part of the New York State Senate's official record.
