and left our great state because of high property taxes. This legislation will reign in high property taxes and help retain our working families and children here.

Also this week, New York State Governor Andrew Cuomo released his 2011-2012 Executive Budget.

I was happy to see that the Executive Budget took on the twin evils of out-of-control taxation and runaway spending. While no doubt this will be challenging, there is not one new tax in this budget.
