graduated levels of criminal justice for large scale producers and distributors of child pornography; and a bill to expand the unsealing of criminal histories for the purpose of investigating applicants for employment by police departments and other law enforcement Agencies. Also, a bill I introduced was passed requiring that when a sex offender is sentenced to probation, and he/she violates that probation with another sex offense, that the sentences of incarceration imposed for the probation violation and for the new sex offense run consecutively and not concurrently. You can read more about this on my website at www.robach.nysenate.gov. These bills were sent to the Assembly.
