

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Andrea Stewart-Cousins

"Women Working It" Workshop

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS February 18, 2011

| ISSUE: MWBE (DIVISION OF MINORITY AND WOMEN BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT)

Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins organized a business workshop for women at the annual Black, Puerto Rican, Hispanic and Asian Legislative Caucus weekend. The workshop presented valuable information from a panel of successful women business owners and government partners about how to get a business off the ground.

Panelists included:

- Teri Coaxum, Regional Advocate, Small Business Administration
- Yrthya Dinzey-Flores, Chief Diversity Officer, Executive Chamber
- Das Velez, Director of Division of Minority & Women Business Development Empire State Development
- Quenia Abreu, President & CEO, New York Women's Chamber
- Jim King, NYS Small Business Development Center
- Pat MacKrell, President & CEO, NY Business Development Corporation
- Ramona Grey Harris, Owner/Property Manager, Edward Sisters Realty
- Kecia Palmer-Cousins, Co-owner, G & K Sweets
- And other special guests who are women entrepreneurs