

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

William Larkin

Star q&a

William J. Larkin Jr.

April 5, 2011

ISSUE:

- Taxes

The School Tax Relief Program, or STAR, was sponsored by the New York State Senate to provide a partial exemption from school property taxes for New York State residents who own homes. Since it was enacted in 1997, STAR has saved homeowners more than $21.5 billion. Now that STAR is fully implemented, more than three million homeowners will save nearly $4.7 billion this year.

For more information, click here for my STAR Q&A brochure.